

Questions for discussion

Topic: predation in the waterways leading to the fish facilities

- How can we develop a more complete model of these processes?
- What is the ecological context of predation losses?
- What is the specific contribution of structures to modifying predation rates?
- What is missing from our current understanding of predation?
- What alternative approaches can we imagine for this problem?
- How can we get a better (or any) estimate of predation losses?